

Warranty Exclusionary Terms and Conditions.

The following will be considered Void from any warranty written, given, expressed, or otherwise implied by May Automotive LLC, Etc.

- 1. Damage from auto accidents or collisions.
- 2. Breakdowns caused by engine overheating or lack of lubrication.
- 3. Breakdowns due to lack of maintenance.
- 4. Any failure of a replaced part failing due to neglect, loss of fluids, temperature, or lack of due diligence on the part of the vehicle driver.
- 5. In the event of Sublet rebuilt components- (Cylinder heads and Head gasket jobs from Machine shop, Transfer case and Transmission repairs, or differentials) Any failure due to loss of fluid or overheating will void warranty excluding if components carry a separate or extension of warranty provision from supplier.
- 6. Damage to a non-replaced component caused by a replaced components failure.
- 7. Used parts. Excluding used parts that May carry an additional exchange warranty period offered by limited salvage suppliers.
- 8. Customer provided parts. ALL WARRANTY/ CLAIMS MUST BE HANDLED BETWEEN PART PURCHASER AND SUPPLIER RESPECTIVELY.
- 9. Damage from weather, fire, flood, etc
- 10. Any other items noted in Work orders or invoices as circumstances arise (Example: installing customer provided new part that does not appear to be of type/ quality for vehicle.)